A Final Farewell.....

I would just like to take this opportunity to thank you the parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles and everyone else for all your amazing support over the last ten years. I have always felt that you have been willing me to do well and I have never taken this support for granted; it means everything to me and for that I am truly grateful. I would like to leave you with these few words, which were proclaimed at Nelson Mandela's inauguration; they have inspired me for many years.....

'Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate
Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure
It is our light, not our darkness
That most frightens us
We ask ourselves
Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented and fabulous?
Actually, who are you not to be?
You are a child of God
Your playing small does not serve the world,
There's nothing enlightened about shrinking
So that other people won't feel insecure around you
We are all meant to shine as children do
We were born to manifest the glory of God that is within us
It is not just within some of us
It is in everyone
And as we let our light shine
We unconsciously give other people permission to do the same
As we are liberated from our own fear
Our presence automatically liberates others.'
- Marianne Williamson

And on that note, take care everyone and may God bless you ☺
